Profile	A detail-oriented and motivated Computer Science student with strong communication, teamwork, and leadership abilities. Skilled in Java, MySQL, HTML, CSS, and JavaScript, with basic exposure to the MERN Stack. I also have a growing interest in Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning, which is my minor specialization in college. With a mindset focused on continuous learning, I am eager to explore AI/ML concepts and have already begun learning them. I am seeking opportunities to gain real-world industry experience and contribute to meaningful software solutions.
